Characteristic	504 Plan	IEP
Background	 General Education Document "Permit" to accommodate Section 504/ADA: Institution & Employer friendly (no hardship) Generally overseen by guidance counselor or social worker at school K-12 document, generalizing well to college and possibly workplace 	 Federal entitlement under IDEA Arose from historic and systematic exclusion of students with disabilities Requires need for individualized instruction, related services EI, ECE, K-12, and transition 3 year re-evaluation Annual review IEP meeting may be requested (discipline, behavior, review, progress update) by any team member
Requirements	 Student must maintain an impairment of a "major life activity" which may include learning, breathing, walking, etc. Burden generally on family to provide documentation Adverse effect noted 	 Presence of disability which impacts academic or functional performance Requires need for compensatory instruction Goals/Services clearly outlined, with clear conditions for achievement
Dispute resolution	Office of Civil Rights (OCR) complaint	 Several layers (from school –based in teaming, to mediation, to formal hearing) Burden of proof in IL: parent
Little known facts	 Re-evaluation needs Manifestation Determination meetings 	 Signing the IEP (instances: initial consent, consent for re-eval, addendum, exit/refusal of services, LD eligibility) IEPs and generalization to higher education Services for students not yet eligible
